OVERVIEW

Dear Jenna,

Thank you for the conversation earlier this week and the opportunity to support Aurora Dairies with two important additions to your HR team. It's a pleasure to submit this proposal for your consideration.

HeXTalent has evolved considerably over the past year. It now sits as the parent company behind a small portfolio of focused, human-first products — including Careers in HR (Australia's specialist HR market platform) and CiHR Talent (a career positioning and support platform for HR professionals). Our recruitment work draws directly on this infrastructure: HR-specific reach, HR-specific market intelligence, and a candidate community built entirely around the profession.

For Aurora Dairies, that means the search will be conducted through a genuinely specialist channel — not a generalist agency approach.

The Engagement

Based on our discussion, this proposal covers the following two appointments:

ROLE	TYPE	INDICATIVE PACKAGE
Human Resources Business Partner	Full time, permanent	Up to $150,000 pa + super
Human Resources Administrator	Part time, permanent	Circa $80,000 pa + super, pro-rated to part-time

Formal briefs, including hiring manager stakeholders, role scope, and success criteria, will be taken upon acceptance of these terms.

METHODOLOGY

Our Approach

Every search follows a considered, quality-led rhythm rather than a volume-first one. Broadly:

- Discovery brief — Detailed briefing with you and any relevant hiring stakeholders, capturing role context, culture, non-negotiables, and success indicators.
- Targeted search — A blended sourcing approach across active and passive channels, including direct visibility through Careers in HR.
- Structured screening — Rigorous initial conversations and candidate validation before any candidate reaches your desk.
- Curated shortlist — A small shortlist of qualified, culturally-aligned candidates, with full context and honest positioning.
- Interview & offer support — Facilitation through interviews, post-interview reference checks prior to formal written offer, offer negotiation, and onboarding hand-over.
- Guarantee period — A replacement guarantee applies as detailed in our Terms of Business.

Indicative Timelines

Timelines below commence from formal brief and terms acceptance. As a general guide:

Weeks 0–3	Active search and screening
Weeks 3–5	Shortlist submitted, interviews facilitated
Weeks 5–6	Post-interview reference checks, offer, acceptance, onboarding support
Post-placement	Replacement guarantee in force per the Terms of Business

COMMERCIALS

Commercial Terms

In recognition of the dual engagement, HeXTalent is pleased to offer a reduced placement fee for both roles.

Placement fee	15% of total remuneration per role (reduced from HeXTalent's standard 18%)
Engagement fee	$3,000 + GST a single flat fee to commence the work, covering both roles. Non-refundable, credited pro-rata against the successful placement invoices.
Balance	Invoiced on the successful commencement of each Candidate, less the applicable engagement-fee credit.
Replacement guarantee	Per Terms of Business — six months for full-time permanent placements of 12 months or more.

Fees and full terms are detailed in the accompanying Terms of Business (Section 2 onwards).
All amounts are exclusive of GST unless otherwise stated.

Next Steps

1. Review the attached Terms of Business, tailored to this engagement.
2. Return a signed copy to jeff@hextalent.com.au — or accept online at the link this proposal was shared from.

4. Active search commences immediately following the briefs.

Thank you again, Jenna — I'm looking forward to partnering with Aurora Dairies on these appointments and to representing your business well in the HR market.

Warmly,

Jeff Teale

- GST has the meaning given to that term in the GST Law.
- GST Act means A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth).
- GST Law has the meaning given to that term in the GST Act.
- Introduced and Introduction means receipt of a CV, resume or any information, whether orally or in writing, sufficient to identify a Candidate or an Employee.

- Remuneration means the aggregate gross annual remuneration package payable to, or on behalf of, a Candidate pursuant to the Engagement, including all inducement payments, Fees (if applicable), base salary and superannuation.

Acceptance of Terms of Business

1.4 The Client accepts these terms of business if it does any of the following:

- (a) returns a signed copy of these terms of business to the Company;
- (b) gives instructions to the Company to provide an Introduction;
- (c) otherwise communicates its intentions to interact with, Engage, recruit or procure a Candidate, whether verbally, orally, in writing or by conduct;
- (d) Engages a Candidate or Employee; or
- (e) otherwise communicates an acceptance of these terms of business (including by electronic acceptance under the Electronic Transactions Act 1999 (Cth)).

Appointment

1.5 You are deemed to have appointed the Company to Introduce a Candidate to you on the terms of this agreement if either:

- (a) you request that the Company provide you with information about Candidates (including resumes); or
- (b) the Company provides you with information about a Candidate and you do anything in relation to that Candidate including communicating with or contacting, in any way, that Candidate.

1.6 The passing on of an Introduction to another employer which results in an Engagement renders the Client liable to payment of the Fee as set out in clause 2.

1.7 Fees will be charged for any Permanent Placement Engaged as a consequence of, or resulting from, an application to the Company, regardless of whether the Introduction was made directly or indirectly.

2. Fees

2.1 Engagement Fee

An Engagement Fee of $3,000 (exclusive of GST) is payable by the Client to the Company on acceptance of these terms of business, to commence the work under this engagement (covering both roles listed in the accompanying proposal).

2.2 Placement Fee

A Placement Fee of 15% of Remuneration is payable per Candidate on Permanent Placement.

2.3 Credit of Engagement Fee

The Engagement Fee is non-refundable in all circumstances. On Permanent Placement of a Candidate for either role under this engagement, the Engagement Fee will be credited on a pro-rata basis against the Placement Fee invoice(s). If no Permanent Placement occurs, or if the engagement is cancelled or withdrawn by the Client for any reason, the Engagement Fee remains payable in full and is not credited or refunded.

2.4 Minimum Fee

If the Placement Fee for any Permanent Placement does not exceed $5,000, then a minimum Placement Fee of $5,000 will apply.

2.5 GST

All Fees are exclusive of GST. In addition to our Fees you must also pay to us GST payable in respect of the taxable supply at the time payment for the taxable supply is due.

2.6 Invoicing

The Placement Fee (or remainder of the Placement Fee after application of the Engagement Fee credit) will be invoiced upon the Candidate's commencement date.

2.7 Payment terms

All invoices must be paid within 14 days of the invoice date.

2.8 Cancellation

If, after an offer of employment has been accepted by the Candidate, the Client decides for any reason not to proceed with the Employment, a cancellation Fee of $5,000 plus GST is payable in addition to the Engagement Fee already paid. If the Client subsequently hires the Candidate within a period of 12 months following the cancellation, a full Placement Fee as set out above is then payable, less the cancellation Fee (but not less the Engagement Fee, which is retained by the Company).

2.9 Part-time placements

Where a Candidate is placed on a part-time position, the Placement Fee shall be calculated on a pro-rata basis on the actual Remuneration payable. Should the contract be extended past the agreed end date or should the Candidate go permanent full-time, an additional Fee of no more than the balance of the 'full' permanent placement Fee will apply.

2.10 Calculation basis

The Placement Fee payable to the Company by the Client for the introduction of a Candidate is an amount equal to a percentage of the gross annual remuneration (including superannuation) paid by the Client to the Candidate.

2.11 Deemed engagement

Without limitation, the Client will be deemed to have employed a Candidate if you or any related party of the Client:

- (a) employs, retains or engages the Candidate in any capacity;
- (b) enters into an agreement, contract, arrangement or understanding with the Candidate:
 - (i) for the provision of goods or services; or
 - (ii) in the nature of contract of services or contract for services; or
 - (iii) in the nature of a partnership, merger, joint venture, consultancy or similar.
- (c) offers any of the above to a Candidate and the Candidate accepts that offer, or you accept an offer from a Candidate in relation to any of the above (whether or not formal contracts are signed or exchanged).

2.12 Variation

Any variation of this contract (including these terms and conditions) must be in writing and agreed by both parties prior to the Introduction of any particular Candidate.

2.13 Revised Fee Notice

We may by notice in writing vary the manner in which the Placement Fee is to be calculated ("Revised Fee Notice"). Our revised Fee structure applies only in relation to a Candidate that the Client employs after the date of the Revised Fee Notice.

2.14 Client's decision

You must make the final decision on whether to employ a Candidate Introduced by the Company. The Client must satisfy itself as to the qualifications, capabilities, integrity and suitability of that Candidate for the relevant role and the accuracy of any information that the Client obtains in respect of the Candidate.

2.15 Post-placement information

The Client must provide the Company with full particulars of any communication that the Client has with a Candidate in relation to the Client employing that Candidate. Without limitation, the Company must be entitled to receive this information for the first 12 months of the commencement of the employment.

3. Guarantee Period

3.1 If a Candidate withdraws from, or proves unsatisfactory for, the role to which they were appointed for a reason which should have been identified within the selection process, and during the Guarantee period referred to in clause 3.2, we will recruit one replacement candidate ("Replacement Candidate") for the Client on an exclusive basis ("Guarantee").

3.2 The following Guarantee periods will apply to Candidates Engaged by the Client:

ENGAGED ROLE	GUARANTEE PERIOD
Permanent Placement or fixed term contract of 12 months or more.	Six (6) months
Permanent Placement or fixed term contract of less than 12 months but greater than six (6) months.	Three (3) months
Permanent Placement or fixed term contract of less than six (6) months.	Two (2) months

For the avoidance of doubt, the duration of the Engaged Role is the length of time, at the Candidate's commencement, that the Client Engages the Candidate for (as documented on the Candidate's employment contract), and not the length of time that the Candidate actually works for or is employed by the Client.

3.3 The Guarantee will not apply:

- (a) if the Client has not complied with these terms of business, including the Client's obligation to pay any invoice for the Fee within 14 days of the invoice date;
- (b) if the Client has not notified the Company in writing of the end of the Candidate's Employment within seven (7) days of the termination or resignation occurring;
- (c) if the Candidate has been made redundant, redeployed or their role has been restructured;
- (d) if a Candidate chooses to leave their Employment or is terminated due to the alteration of the original job description;
- (e) if the Candidate has made application against the Client alleging a breach of any anti-discrimination laws, unfair dismissal laws or any Fair Work laws;
- (f) to any Replacement Candidate; and
- (g) to any Replacement Candidate who has a higher Remuneration than the original Candidate. If this situation occurs, then the Company will still provide a Guarantee, but the Client must pay the Placement Fee calculated on the difference between the Remuneration of the original Candidate and the Remuneration of the Replacement Candidate.

3.4 If the Company is unable to find a Replacement Candidate within 90 calendar days of receiving notice from the Client, then the Company will allow a full credit towards any other Candidate that commences within seven months from the end of the 90-day calendar period.

3.5 No cash refund will be provided.

4. Disclaimer

4.1 The Company makes no warranty as to the suitability of any Candidate. The Company will use reasonable endeavours to determine the suitability of the Candidate, including making reasonable efforts to attempt to verify that the Candidate is appropriate for the Client's position.

4.2 If the Company has agreed to engage a third-party service on behalf of the Client to undertake verification, investigations, searches or checks in relation to a Candidate, the Company makes no warranty as to the accuracy or reliability of any information provided to the Client or to the Company by that third party.

4.3 The Client is responsible for:

- (a) satisfying itself as to the suitability of any Candidate;
- (b) evaluating references and verifying that the Candidate has the experience;
- (c) training, qualifications and any authorisation which may be required by law or by any professional body; and

- (d) obtaining any required work permits and/or permissions to work as may be required, and arranging any medical examinations and/or investigations into the medical history of the Candidate required by law.

5. Confidentiality

Any information that the Company provides to the Client about a Candidate ("Confidential Information") is confidential and may be subject to the provisions of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). Accordingly, the Client:

- (a) must not disclose the Confidential Information about a Candidate to third parties;
- (b) must deal with the Confidential Information provided to the Client about a Candidate in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth);
- (c) must not contact the employer of any Candidate the Company introduces to the Client;
- (d) must use the Confidential Information held by the Client for the sole purpose of fulfilling their obligations under this agreement;
- (e) must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the Confidential Information held by the Client is protected from misuse, loss, unauthorised access, unauthorised modification or unauthorised disclosure;
- (f) must notify the Company immediately in writing upon becoming aware of any breach of this clause 5, giving details of such breach;
- (g) must not conduct any reference checks on the Candidate without authority from the Company and the Candidate; and
- (h) agrees to indemnify the Company against any liability, costs, damages or losses incurred as a result of a breach of this provision.

6. Termination

This agreement cannot be terminated unless agreed in writing by both parties.

7. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

These terms and conditions are governed by, and are to be construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Queensland and the Commonwealth of Australia. Each party submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts and Tribunals of Queensland and any court of competent jurisdiction elsewhere in Australia.

8. Assignment

The Company can assign all or any of the Company's rights and obligations under this agreement to any person without the Client's consent, and the Client acknowledges and agrees to each such assignment. The Client cannot, and must not, assign any of the Client's rights and obligations under this agreement to any person without the Company's prior written consent.

9. Invalidity

Even if part of this agreement is for any reason invalid or unenforceable, the remaining portion remains in full effect as if each party had signed it without the invalid portion.

10. Entire Agreement

This agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter of this agreement.

11. Notices

Any notice or other communication required under this agreement:

- (a) must be in legible writing and in English, and addressed to the party concerned or to that party's address; and
- (b) may be delivered to a party by being left at, or posted by security post or sent by electronic mail to that party's address.

12. Agreement to Terms of Business

The Client understands and agrees to the rates, terms and conditions stated herein.
